

I Am A Star

We are all different. This makes the world an exciting place! We all like different things, we are all interested in different things, and we are all good at different things. This makes us all special!

Draw a picture of yourself in the middle of the star and then write or draw things that make you special on each star point.

